Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

Western Ireland is a timeless escape and a hub of Irish tradition and culture, making it an inspiring place for exploration and learning. This spring we invite you to join us in our homeland Program to Rosenmound Island. The itinerary includes excursions through breathtaking countryside, visits to sites both ancient and modern, and a voyage out to the rugged Aran Island of Inishmore.

In addition to enjoying the beauty of the western coast and the richness of its history, we'll have the opportunity to appreciate traditional arts — music, dance and storytelling — that are still very much alive at the heart of Ireland's cultural life. We've selected the perfect hotel for this trip, the White Horse Hotel in Galway as a base for our tour. In addition to being comfortable, the hotel is centrally located in Galway, which will allow us to relax and enjoy what we've seen and done with like-minded companions.

Shannon, Galway, Connemara, the Cliffs of Moher, beaches and mountains are just a few of the attractions we'll experience. In addition, lectures from lecturers to deepen our understanding of the sites we visit.

Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

Western Ireland is a timeless escape and a hub of Irish traditional culture, making it an inspiring place for exploration and learning. This spring invite you to join us on our Annual Campus in Western Ireland. The itinerary weaves us through breathtaking countryside, visits to sites both historic and modern, and a voyage out to the rugged Aran Island of Inishmore.

In addition to enjoying the beauty of the western coast and the richness of its history, we will have the opportunity to appreciate the traditional arts — music, dance, language — that are still very much at home in the heart of Ireland's cultural life. We've partnered with the Tea Institute of Ireland, which has a site in the heart of the castle where we will attend talks on Irish literature and participate in handcrafts with local people eager to share their heritage. A Temple faculty member will accompany our group and will assemble a panel of guides and lecturers to deepen our understanding of the sites we visit.

Based in a comfortable hotel located in Galway, we will have plenty of time to relax and discover what we've come each day with. We'll also attend special events like traditional dances, full Irish breakfasts, and special visits to locations of cultural and historical significance. A Temple faculty member will accompany our group and will assemble a panel of guides and lecturers to deepen our understanding of the sites we visit.

Western Ireland beckons travelers with youthful energy thanks to its ancient lands and traditions. The rugged Aran Islands, with their seacoast villages, offer dramatic views of the Atlantic Ocean. Just off the coast is one of the Aran Islands, where a beautiful rocky crag overlooks the Atlantic. The atmosphere here has been shaped by the life of pirate queen Grace O'Malley, from 1530 to 1603, who fought against Spanish invaders and customs officials for generations.

In County Galway near Connemara sits Ireland's largest Gaeltacht, but also one of its most remote. This region, once owned by Dan O'Hara, is surrounded by lush lawns, rolling fields, and breathtaking vistas of the Atlantic Ocean. Its remote location has preserved much of the Irish way of life. The Corknane Church and woodland walks are serene, and local tea rooms offer warm hospitality.

The Ardilaun Hotel is situated in the midst of Connemara, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains and the Donegal Sea. A historic property, the Ardilaun has been a favorite destination for travelers since its opening in 1867 by English gentleman Mitchell Henry. The Gothic church and woodland walks are serene, and local tea rooms offer warm hospitality.

Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

Western Ireland is a timeless escape—a land of lush, traditional culture, making it an inspiring place for exploration and learning. This spring invite your spirit to join us in our unique campus in Shannon, Ireland. The itinerary showcases experiences through breathtaking countryside, visits to shrines and ancient ruins, and cultural escapes to the region’s rugged, historical homesteads.

In addition to exploring the beauty of the western coast and the influence of its history, we’ve outlined opportunities to appreciate the traditional arts — music, song, storytelling — that are still very much alive at the heart of Ireland’s cultural life. We’ve partnered with the Temple Irish Diaspora Network to offer this trip, as a way of the world’s center where we will witness tales of the network’s participation in hand-made pieces and engaging local people eager to share their heritage. A Temple faculty member will accompany the group and will assist with local guides and lecturers to deepen our understanding of the sites we visit.
