An Extraordinary
“People-to-People” Opportunity

October 18 to 26, 2015
Dear Temple Alumni and Friends,

Be among the first Americans to rediscover Cuba and the lively dignity of this historical Caribbean gem, with its friendly, welcoming and inquisitive people, who are quick to laugh and talk honestly and compassionately about their complicated and lovely country. Unravel the epic sweep of Cuba’s history during this extraordinary “people-to-people” exchange to interact with locals who will illuminate the traditions of the surviving Indian peoples; the lasting influence of Spain; the glamorous playground that drew celebrities, gangsters, movie stars, writers and heads of state; the legacy of Fidel Castro and the island’s revolutionary past; as well as its emerging and idealistic future. Explore the vivid and mesmerizing landscape, which has lodged itself into the imagination of artists, dancers and writers, infusing all aspects of the culture with a tropical energy and native zest for life.

Discover the full portrait of the island on this intimate “people-to-people” cultural exchange and experience the true character and traditions of Cuba. Explore Havana, with its vibrant spirit, iconic Malecón and beautifully restored Old City and fortifications, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit Guanabacoa and Regla, centers of Afro-Cuban culture; Matanzas, “the city of bridges;” and Santa Clara, particularly identified with the last battle that marked the end of Fulgencio Batista’s rule. Admire Cuba’s misty valleys with lush green tobacco fields and striking karst formations and the azure sea along the island’s stunning coastline.

This travel program offers a full-time and intensive schedule of events, all of which involve significant “people-to-people” exchanges with Cubans from diverse walks of life—artists, architects, tradespeople or craftsmen, paladar restaurant and craft-market entrepreneurs, university professors, senior citizens, musicians and dancers—all of whom reflect this country’s unique rhythm of daily life and are eager to share their life experiences with you.

Throughout this specially designed program, enjoy accommodations in Havana’s historic HOTEL NACIONAL DE CUBA and MELIÁ COHIBA, in the MELIÁ LAS AMERICAS near Matanzas and in Santa Clara’s HOTEL AMERICA.

ISLAND LIFE® CUBA provides an exclusive and long-awaited “people-to-people” exchange and travel opportunity for Americans that is extremely popular, so I encourage you to reserve now as space is limited. We do hope you will join us for this unforgettable experience!

Sincerely,

An Extraordinary “People-to-People” Opportunity

Be among the first U.S. travelers to enjoy this unique exploration of Cuba. This exciting, much anticipated program provides an unprecedented “people-to-people” opportunity engaging local Cubans from all walks of life—artists, architects, tobacco farmers, tradesmen, cigar rollers, university students and professors, senior citizens and doctors, paladar and craft market entrepreneurs, musicians and dancers—and U.S. travelers with one another openly to share their values and interests and to experience firsthand the true character and traditions of residents of the Caribbean’s largest and most complex island. By special arrangement and U.S. Treasury-approved license, see the UNESCO World Heritage site of Old Havana, Matanzas, Santa Clara, Guanabacoa, Regla and Pinar del Río. Immerse yourself in an intimate travel experience that explores the Cuban people’s history, art, culture, professions and trades and cuisine in order to understand how the Cuban people live and discover our shared interests.

The carefully planned People-to-People Cultural Enrichments are exclusive to this specially designed itinerary:

- Hear it from the Experts! Experienced, English-speaking Cuban hosts will accompany you throughout the program and discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Cuba. Interact with local Cuban experts including musicians, artists, farmers, academics and architects.

- Meet lifelong residents of Cuba, who will share their perspectives on daily life.

- Enjoy three included meals each day while in Cuba.

- Savor authentic Cuban cuisine in paladares—private, family-run restaurants usually located in family homes and which have been permitted only since the 1990s—and in fine restaurants.

- Experience a private concert of classical music at the Ermita (Hermitage) de Monserrate, a late-19th-century church turned spectacular music venue in Matanzas.

- Learn about preservation efforts in Old Havana, the unique African-derived religion Santería, organic and tobacco farming and Cuba’s social welfare system.

Miami, Florida, U.S.
Day 1
Depart your home city for Miami. Upon arrival, check into the MIAMI AIRPORT MARRIOTT HOTEL.

Miami/Havana, Cuba
Day 2
Fly aboard charter aircraft to Havana. Upon arrival, meet your experienced, English-speaking Cuban hosts, who will guide you throughout your immersion into their way of life. See Revolution Square, where Fidel Castro gave his famous eight-hour May Day speeches. Then, check into the iconic HOTEL NACIONAL DE CUBA.

Cuba’s capital, the early-20th-century “Paris of the Caribbean,” remains today arguably one of a kind, mixing impressive urban architecture and culture with an earthy, informal vibe and an energetic arts and music scene. The cityscape has retained a distinctly vintage feel, sometimes nearly cinematically so, which is bolstered by the prevalence of 1950s American-made automobiles, fondly called “Yank tanks” by the locals who painstakingly maintain them.

Vedado, Havana’s downtown district, is a mix of old and new, including the University of Havana; the pre-revolutionary Capitolio reminiscent of the U.S. Capitol; the iconic Malecón (oceanfront promenade); the legendary HOTEL NACIONAL DE CUBA; the prevalent Cuban Institute of Music; historic Revolution Square; the stunning sculpture and architecture of the Colon Cemetery; and many gracious, sometimes grandiose manses and townhouses of the 19th and early 20th centuries.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:
◆ Enjoy an introduction to student life at Havana University during an interactive walking tour led by a university scholar.

Havana
Day 3
Habana Vieja, the Spanish colonial core, is a maze of cobbledstone streets and picturesque squares—like the bayside Plaza de Armas, the site where San Cristóbal de la Habana was founded in 1514—which have been largely restored and designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Adjacent are the densely residential Centro Habana, vibrant El Vedado, and affluent Playa districts, which have a more 19th- and early-20th-century eclectic mix of neoclassical, Beaux-Arts and Art Deco architecture. Here, the lively street life is a testament to the flourishing artistic and social lives of the Cubans. Enjoy lunch in one of the city’s premier restaurants.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Local architects and architectural restoration scholars discuss the preservation and evolution of art and architecture in Havana on a walking tour.
- Discover the inspiring Muraleando (“mural-making”) community art project in the nearby Lawton neighborhood.
- Meet the manager of a ration store, who will explain Cuba’s Libreta de Abastecimiento (ration system).

Havana/Matanzas
Day 4
After breakfast in the hotel, transfer to Matanzas, called “the city of bridges” and the “Venice of Cuba” for its many pedestrian, auto and rail bridges crossing two major rivers, and the proud moniker “Athens of Cuba,” reflecting a legacy of poets, writers, painters and musicians. Check into the nearby MELIÁ LAS AMERICAS hotel.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Visit a local school of arts and meet some of the young adults refining their talents.

The bustling artisans’ market spread before Havana’s 18th-century Cathedral San Cristóbal is an ideal venue to meet and interact with locals.
Inspired by Picasso and Gaudí, Cuban painter and sculptor José Rodríguez Fuster transformed his house and others in his Havana neighborhood, Jaimanitas, with kaleidoscopic sculptures and mosaics.

toward a profession in music, painting, sculpture, drawing or print.
◆ Visit the over-130-year-old Triolet Pharmacy, opened in 1882, and interact with the staff and the museum curator, who will explain the instruments used to make medicines.
◆ Observe artisans handcrafting small books made of simple materials in the limited-editions publishing house Ediciones Vigía.
◆ Meet local musicians and hear them perform in the late-19th-century Ermita de Monserrate, a quaint colonial church turned spectacular music venue.

Matanzas/Santa Clara
Day 5
Gateway to Cuba’s historically and agriculturally rich central region, Santa Clara is a culturally active university town featuring one of the country’s spectacular grand colonial theaters built in 1885. Stroll the wide pedestrian streets of gracious downtown Vidal Park, declared a national monument for its authentic Cuban charm and historic sites commemorating Ernesto “Che” Guevara. Check into the HOTEL AMERICA.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
◆ In a typical community Casa de Abuelos, enjoy conversations with the elder Cubans and staff, who will introduce you to a longtime Cuban dance tradition, the danzón.

Santa Clara/Havana
Guanabacoa/Regla/Cojimar
Day 6
Return to Havana this morning, stopping en route in Guanabacoa, a center for Santería, the syncretic faith blending Catholicism and beliefs and traditions brought to Cuba by African slaves. Explore this very Cuban phenomenon in Guanabacoa’s Afro-Cuban Museum.

Across the harbor from Old Havana, Regla is a borough best known among Cubans for the iconic Black Virgin of Regla, patron of sailors, queen of the waters and identified with the Santería goddess Yemayá.

The charming seaside fishing town of Cojimar is best known for Ernest Hemingway, affectionately called “Papa” by locals, and his hilltop farmhouse, Finca Vigía, where he wrote The Old Man and the Sea based on a local fisherman. Enjoy lunch at La Terraza de Cojimar, where Hemingway regularly dined.

Check into the HOTEL MELIÁ COHIBA.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
◆ Meet followers of Santería and learn more about their religion, still prevalent throughout the island.
◆ Ride in a private antique American-made car to dine this evening in a paladar, a family-run restaurant in a private home.

Havana
Pinar del Río/Viñales Valley
Day 7
Cuba’s westernmost province, Pinar del Río, has a pleasant capital city surrounded by expansive farmlands famously spread over the Cordillera de Guaniguanico, one of the island’s three main mountain ranges.

Pinar del Río’s striking Viñales Valley—designated a UNESCO World Heritage site for its natural beauty and the preservation of its traditional architecture, crafts and way of life—is a much photographed and painted 270-square-mile plain surrounded by distinctive limestone karst hills the locals call mogotes. The farmland here is among Cuba’s richest, and the ancient agricultural practices produce robust coffee and some of the world’s best tobacco, products central to Cuban history and identity. Visit the community art therapy program in Pinar del Río.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
- Meet local farmers and observe a traditional cigar-roller in Vuelta Abajo, the country’s tobacco heartland.
- Share a homestyle lunch with an organic farmer’s family and enjoy a discussion as you explore his gardens.
- In the historic town of Pinar del Río, visit a community project whose aim is to teach engraving to young people with Down Syndrome.

Havana/Jaimanitas

Day 8

Jaimanitas, a beach community in the Havana suburb Playa, is home to the Hemingway Marina and one of Cuba’s best known artists, José Antonio Rodríguez Fuster, a sculptor and painter whose elaborate and distinctive works of art are in a style inspired by Barcelona’s Antoni Gaudí.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
- Interact with members of José Rodríguez Fuster’s community.
- Discuss a music performance with members of the Cuban Institute of Music.

Havana/Miami, Florida, U.S./Home City

People-to-People: an Extraordinary Opportunity

When Christopher Columbus landed in Cuba in 1492 he was met by native Arawak Indians. Diego Valázquez de Cuéllar followed and settled the island, using deep Havana Harbor for a transit point back to Spain. It became a smuggler’s haven during the heyday of seafaring pirates, and when the sugarcane industry boomed in the early 1800s, massive numbers of slaves were imported and eventually left their indelible mark on the history of the Caribbean’s largest island. Visiting Cuba today, it is easy to see that the culture is still steeped in its history, which blends European, African, Asian and Middle Eastern influences. Along with the more recent historical events, including being a protectorate of the United States and the Revolutionary lightning rod for 20th-century politics, Cuba is a lively and artistic tropical island filled with a native population said to be amongst the most welcoming and charming people in the world, who have a myriad of ways in which they will reveal to you the secrets of their proud country.

Enjoy a lecture by a Havana University professor on university life in Cuba today and engage local architects to learn about preservation efforts in Havana. Meet musicians who will perform a classical music concert in the historic Ermita (Hermitage) de Monserrate. Travel into the agricultural core of the country to interact with local organic and traditional tobacco farmers. Converse with elder Cubans in a typical community Casa de Abuelos. Try rolling your r’s during a Spanish language lesson, learn more about local religious customs and enamorarse con la gente de Cuba (fall in love with the people of Cuba).

Linger in Old Havana and observe the distinctive Cuban rhythm of this UNESCO World Heritage site.

Whether bolero, mambo or danzón, dance expresses the quintessentially Cuban flair for living in the moment.
The agricultural province of Pinar del Río is home to the fertile Viñales Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where farmers notably grow much of the world’s premium cigar tobacco.
