Dear Temple Alumni and Friends,

Democracy never, ever cancels in Europe, and Normandy is no exception. As France prepares to commemorate the 70th anniversary of D-Day on June 6, 2014, and the end of World War II, we have created a program to commemorate this historic event.

With two full days spent visiting the beaches, memorials, and D-Day sites, this program also includes other highlights of the area, including the historic port town of Honfleur, the UNESCO World Heritage site of Mont-Saint-Michel, the scenic D-Day coast of Normandy, and the world-renowned Chateau d’Allauch. This skillfully tailored program also includes other highlights of the area, including the historic port town of Honfleur, the UNESCO World Heritage site of Mont-Saint-Michel, the scenic D-Day coast of Normandy, and the world-renowned Chateau d’Allauch. This year marks the 70th anniversary of D-Day, and we are thrilled to offer you an opportunity to celebrate this historic event.

The price of air transportation offered by AHI Travel is based on availability with Air France and Delta Air Lines. The air program is guaranteed with a minimum of 15 participants. Should the air program fail to meet this minimum, participants will have the option of continuing as a land program, with the land program cost being reduced by as much as 100 percent, depending on the number of participants.
