Dear Temple Alumni and Friends,

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician, Roman and Moorish mariners aboard the Five-Star small ship M.S. LE LYRIAL on this comprehensive itinerary to the coastal jewels of the Iberian Peninsula. En route from Barcelona to Lisbon, visit three UNESCO World Heritage sites and Portugal's lesser-traveled Algarve region. Call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Palma de Mallorca. Enjoy the colorful, historic city of Valencia and walk through its spectacular La Lonja de la Seda, the city's UNESCO World Heritage-designated 15th-century former Silk Exchange. Visit the regal city of Granada and tour the magnificent Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Stand on Gibraltar's "Top of the Rock" to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Experience the spectacular sights that inspired works by Gaudí and Picasso, and enjoy the joyful beat of flamenco. Onboard lectures will enhance your journey with the history, legends and modern life of these beautiful cities and villages.

The exclusively chartered M.S. LE LYRIAL exemplifies the advantages of Five-Star, small-ship cruising: elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary carefully crafted with a specially arranged excursion in each port, the ability to dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels, and no long lines for tenders and touring. The state-of-the-art M.S. LE LYRIAL features only 110 Suites and Staterooms with distinctive French sophistication. Travel in style while enjoying the unique opportunity to cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain's legendary Guadalquivir River.

I encourage you to reserve now and join your fellow alumni for this exclusive itinerary.

Sincerely,

Amy Goerwitz

Faculty Host - Montserrat Piera has been a professor of Spanish and Medieval Iberian Studies in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Temple since 1991. A native of Spain, she was born and grew up in a small town by the Mediterranean Sea, not far from Barcelona. Being surrounded by ancient Greek and Roman archaeological sites, medieval castles nestled in the Pyrenees, and indelible traces of Muslim and Jewish culture and architecture sparked in her a love for storytelling, an interest in the dynamics of cultural and linguistic exchange, history and the arts and an appreciation for the pleasures of varied cuisine and after dinner conversation. These interests have informed her academic research and publications, which encompass books and articles about topics as diverse as medieval adventure and chivalry novels; ancient and medieval travel and commerce in the Mediterranean; the coexistence of Muslims, Christians and Jews in the Iberian Peninsula and on the island of Mallorca; and, more recently, the meaning of food in the culture of the early modern period.

Professor Piera has led other educational trips and has traveled extensively, instilling her love of travel in her two children. She has also lived in Italy and speaks several languages, including the three which will be needed to communicate with the locals during this trip: Catalan, Spanish and Portuguese. Professor Piera received a prestigious National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Award in 2010 entitled "Remapping the Renaissance: Exchange between Early Modern Islam and Europe."

Flourishing Cultures along Iberia's Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery

are showcased on this voyage to fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain the artistic and architectural treasures from centuries past. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans, as well as the diverse Moorish, Jewish and Christian cultures, led to great leaps forward in mathematics, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and talent was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. These voyages brought back riches to Iberia, which created great wealth amidst the unique mélange of cultures, giving rise to the art, architecture and distinctly Mediterranean tradition of savoring life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages you will experience.
