Young Alumni Reunions
Alumni Weekend 2017
June 9 - 11

Temple University’s Young Alumni Reunions take place during Alumni Weekend. During Alumni Weekend 2017, the Class of 2016 will celebrate their 1-Year Reunion and the Class of 2012 will celebrate their 5-Year Reunion.

Overview

Reunion Committee Volunteers (RCVs) help the Alumni Relations staff plan meaningful, fun and well attended Class Reunion celebrations. They are planners, promotors and ambassadors for their class reunion, encouraging classmates to attend Alumni Weekend and help inspire support for Temple University.

What is a Reunion Committee Volunteer?

Before most people commit to attending a Class Reunion, they will ask questions like “Who else is going?” and “Will it be fun?” Our Reunion Committee Volunteers help the Alumni Relations staff plan something fun but more importantly, help make sure your reunion will be well attended. Reunion Committee Volunteers encourage their friends and classmates to reconnect with their alma mater by returning for Alumni Weekend and empower the next generations of Owls by making a gift to Temple University.

Qualifications:
Reunion Committee Volunteers are recruited based on their leadership qualities, involvement on campus as a student and their engagement with Temple since graduation. Reunion Committee Volunteers must be willing to reach out to friends (phone calls, e-mails, social media, etc) and classmates on behalf of Temple University.

Responsibilities

- Attend Alumni Weekend
- Assist with the planning of their Class Reunion event
- Participate in 1-2 Reunion Committee Conference calls and regular email exchanges with the committee – roughly a 1-2 hours per month time commitment
- Promote their Class Reunion and Alumni Weekend to friends and classmates
- Make a reunion gift to Temple University – to whichever area of the university they are most passionate about – and understand the impact of that gift
- Inspire classmates to join them in making a gift to Temple University
- Thank classmates for their participation and contributions to their Class Reunion

Reunion class committee members will receive regular updates on the current happenings at Temple and will be given guidance and training on reaching out and soliciting their peers.
