Day 7: Xian  Our day begins with a visit to the revered Wild Goose Pagoda (c. 652 AD). After lunch we tour the museum housing the army of 7,000 life-sized Terra Cotta Warriors that had lain buried and forgotten for more than two millennia.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 8: Xian/Chengdu  We fly this morning to Chengdu, where we visit the renowned Giant Panda Protection & Research Center, the only such refuge in the world.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 9: Chengdu/Lhasa  Early today we fly to Lhasa, Tibet’s capital and only major city. Sitting on a plateau between two Himalayan ridges, the Chinese province of Tibet covers an area as large as Western Europe. On the way to our hotel we stop to visit with a Tibetan family in their home. Since the altitude here is approximately 12,000 feet above sea level, we spend the remainder of the day acclimating.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 10: Lhasa  Our tour begins in the heart of the old city at Jokhang, Tibet’s holiest temple. Built in 647, Jokhang is an intriguing complex that attracts pilgrims day and night. Surrounding Jokhang is Barkhor, a plaza lined with chanting monks, street performers, and vendors. Later we tour the summer palace of the Dalai Lamas at Norbulinka; tonight, we enjoy dinner at a local restaurant.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 11: Lhasa  Opened to foreigners only since 1984, Tibet is a profoundly spiritual place where Buddhism has infused all aspects of life for 13 centuries. We see evidence of this at 17th-century Potala Palace, with 200,000 Buddha images and 1,000 rooms, some of which we explore this morning. This afternoon we visit the vast Sera Monastery.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 12: Lhasa/Chongqing  We depart for the flight to Chongqing, where we visit the Stilwell Museum commemorating WWII General Joseph Stilwell. Dinner tonight is at our hotel.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 13: Chongqing/Dazu/Board Ship  Today’s excursion features the Dazu Rock Carvings dating back more than a millennium—and now a UNESCO World Heritage site. These cliffside carvings reflect Buddhist teachings, tenets of Confucianism, and local folklore. Tonight we board our river ship and set sail downstream.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 14: Yangtze Cruising – Shibaozhai or Fengdu  Prized for its haunting natural beauty, the Yangtze is one of the world’s longest (3,600 miles) and busiest rivers. This afternoon we visit either the Red Pagoda in Shibaozhai, or the “ghost city” of Fengdu.  \( B,L,D \)

Day 15: Yangtze Cruising – Qutang Gorge/Small Three Gorges/Wu Gorge/Xiling Gorge  Today we pass through narrow Qutang Gorge, then board a small sampan for a cruise through the stunning Small Three Gorges, among the most spectacular sights of our trip.

Dear Temple Alumni and Friends,

In the Chinese zodiac cycle, 2012 is the Year of the Water Dragon, a year full of energy and spirit when ambitious projects can be undertaken. We have chosen this auspicious year to travel to China and Tibet. Our two-week trip will include highlights of Beijing, the terra cotta warriors in historic Xian, bustling, ultra-modern Shanghai, the holy city of Lhasa, and a relaxed cruise on the Yangtze River. Our small group (no more than 24 participants) will make travel and sightseeing easy, and our excellent local tour director and expert city guides will illuminate China’s ancient past as well as its fast-moving present. A Temple faculty member will accompany the trip to enhance our understanding of the country’s history and culture.

The journey begins in 2,000-year old Beijing, China’s modern-day capital. We will visit Tiananmen Square, the Forbidden City, the Summer Palace, the Temple of Heaven, and the Great Wall. Continuing to Xian, origin of the Silk Road, we will visit the site of the recently excavated terra cotta army of more than 7,000 life-size warriors, called the Eighth Wonder of the World. Flying over the Himalayas into Tibet, we will spend three days exploring Lhasa’s sacred temples and vast Potala Palace.

We will board a Victoria Cruises ship in the Mountain City of Chongqing for a three-night cruise on the Yangtze, one of the world’s longest and busiest rivers. After cruising through the spectacular Three Gorges and touring the much-heralded new dam, we will fly to Shanghai, the dazzling city that epitomizes 21st-century China. A three-day extension in Shanghai is also available for those who wish to explore the city at their own pace.

This exclusive, well-priced program has space for only 24 participants. Don’t miss out — book today to secure your place on our Temple alumni trip to China.

Sincerely,

Laura Gruen
Director of Temple Travels
