- Did you know that during World War II, if people shipwrecked on the Normandy coast, they hatched a plan to invade Germany through France. Of course, this was never realized.

- The Normandy beaches, home base of the US 29th Infantry Division and a major landing site of the Allied invasion, were the site of the fierce D-Day battles. The D-Day beaches were the site of the largest concentration of U.S. troops landed here.

- At dawn, the movement began. Planes roared overhead. Orders for a massive invasion were given. The Allies would make their move. The Normandy beaches would be the site of the fiercest D-Day battles.

proved to be the beginning of the end of their march across Europe with one clear foothold in France. As the soldiers began their approach, they were there to fight Nazi Germany, and specifically, to secure a 50-mile stretch of Normandy coastline. Of Allied troops landed along a 60-mile front on June 6, 1944, despite mounting challenges, a heroic formation was able to secure the beaches. The day marked the beginning of the end of Nazi Germany’s hold on Europe. As the tide began to turn against the Nazis, Canadian forces overcame light opposition to capture the beaches. As they approached the beaches, the soldiers disembarked and waded toward the shore. They faced a nightmarish scene that they could have just about walked across the English Channel. But the scale of the German forces was daunting. As the soldiers landed, they faced a hail of bullets. The ones who survived quickly secured bridges and exit roads behind enemy lines.

The Allies prepared for a way to defeat Adolf Hitler and end the war, and began their occupation of northwestern France. Three years later, as the Allies searched for a way to defeat Adolf Hitler and end the war, the Germans invaded the Soviet Union and began their occupation of northwestern France. The Spirit of American Youth Statue was designed to honor the memory of those who served during World War II.

Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

For many Temple alumni, spring break in France offers a chance to reunite with old friends and make new ones. This April 22-29, 2014, you can join us in Normandy as we commemorate the 70th anniversary of D-Day, when Allied troops invaded Normandy and the world marked the beginning of the end of WWII. Black-hat veterns will tell their stories of the battle. As you get closer to the beach, commemorate the sacrifice of those who fought for our freedom.

Bദроcte Temple Alumni & Friends,

Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

Normandy renewed, new sites featured. The site was awarded as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1994, and was designated as one of the Historic Sites of World War II.

Your tour operator, AHI Travel, will take you to the D-Day beaches, the Normandy American Cemetery, and the Memorial. You will also visit the city of Caen, which was the site of the landing of U.S. troops on D-Day. This city is home to the Museum of World War II, which houses exhibits on the history of the war and its aftermath.

This tour offers a unique opportunity to explore the history of World War II in France and to learn about the lives of those who lived through it. You will have the chance to visit sites that are important to the history of the war, such as the D-Day beaches and the Normandy American Cemetery. You will also have the opportunity to interact with local residents and gain a deeper understanding of their experiences.

Once you arrive in France, you will be greeted by your tour operator who will take you to your hotel. You will then have the opportunity to explore the city of Caen and visit the Museum of World War II. The next day, you will travel to the D-Day beaches to see the actual sites where the war began.

After this, you will visit the Normandy American Cemetery, which is the largest American cemetery in Europe. You will have the opportunity to pay respects to the soldiers who fought and died during World War II.

The next day, you will visit the city of Bayeux, which is home to the famous Bayeux Tapestry. This tapestry is a 70-meter long tapestry that depicts the events leading up to the Norman Conquest of England.

During this tour, you will have the opportunity to visit other sites such as the city of Cherbourg, the city of Caen, the city of Bayeux, and the city of Lisieux. You will also have the opportunity to take a short trip to the Normandy countryside, which is known for its beautiful scenery and its rural charm.

This tour is designed for people who are interested in learning about the history of World War II and its impact on France. It is also suitable for people who are interested in history in general, as it provides a unique opportunity to learn about the events that shaped the world.

In conclusion, this tour offers a unique opportunity to explore the history of World War II in France and to learn about the lives of those who lived through it. You will have the chance to visit sites that are important to the history of the war, such as the D-Day beaches and the Normandy American Cemetery. You will also have the opportunity to interact with local residents and gain a deeper understanding of their experiences.

Respect for the dead, peace for the living.

Sincerely,

Dear Temple Alumni & Friends,

Beauvoir, the former home of Mark Twain in France, is one of the most haunted estates in America. The house features the original murals painted by Twain himself. The property is a National Historic Landmark and is managed by the National Park Service.

Temple Alumni and friends are invited to this once-in-a-lifetime event. The exclusive tour of Beauvoir is part of our exclusive trip to Normandy. For more information on this and other Alumni Travel programs, please visit www.alumni.temple.edu/templetravels.
