

BRYAN TERRELL CLARK

BA '03

An accomplished actor, singer and songwriter, BRYAN TERRELL CLARK has shared his talents with the world from the Broadway stage and in some of today's most popular television shows.

Most recently, Clark took on the role of George Washington in the world-famous Broadway hit Hamilton. Just a few years prior, he made his Broadway debut in the 2014 Grammy Award nominated Motown the Musical, in which Clark appeared as Marvin Gaye. He also had the opportunity to take on a role in the acclaimed drama Fences, along with several other productions on some of the most renowned stages in the country.

Clark has secured a diverse range of television appearances throughout his career on several major networks from CBS's CSI: NY and NBC's The Mysteries of Laura to Fox's Empire and BET's Tyler Perry's House of Pain. He made his Netflix debut this year in Ava DuVernay's When They See Us.

As a versatile artist, Clark has performed with popular musicians such as Maxwell, Brandy, Ne-Yo, Anita Baker and more. He served as co-writer on Mary J. Blige's track "Irreversible." He even owns his own production company: Artists Park Productions. Just this year, his company entered into a creative collaboration with INE Entertainment, which is a leading independent production company.

To pay his success forward, Clark co-founded inDEFINED, an initiative that aims to inspire and teach young people to use their voices to erase constrictive labels that society has placed on them.

Clark earned a graduate degree from the renowned Yale School of Drama after completing his bachelor's degree at the School of Theater, Film and Media Arts.